

Lincolnshire County Cricket Ltd
Details of Parental Consent Given for Photographs or Videos

Dear Parent/Carer

We take great pride at Lincolnshire County Cricket Ltd in our efforts to share important information with our stakeholders in a variety of ways. Not only will we use traditional tools – newsletters, phone calls, local papers and websites – to keep you up to date about everything happening here, we will also use social media channels like Twitter and Facebook. We hope to develop stronger partnerships with the community we serve by joining you in these popular digital spaces.

We also like to celebrate, in all our communications, the successes of our players. There are times when we will share photos or video clips from important events and training sessions.

Understandably, however, we also want to respect your family’s right to privacy. As a result, it is necessary for Lincolnshire Cricket to obtain parental consent for the following: -

Photographs or Videos taken for Lincolnshire Cricket

We use photographs on our website. From time to time, articles and photographs of special events will appear in newspapers. Lincolnshire Cricket also has a Facebook and Twitter account. We assure you that we have a responsible approach to the use of photographs and hope that you are able to support us in publicising the many positive aspects in their participation of our organisation.

Our Comprehensive Child Safeguarding Photography and Video Camera policy provides full guidelines for Cricket employee’s, agents, volunteers and other professionals and partners working alongside Lincolnshire Cricket to safeguard Children. Click here
